Homework - I find there is too much and not sure that the learning log adds any value.
Learning log is an arduous task every week, and proves to be a battle to get done - especially for the younger ones who don't seem to get anything out of it.
My daughter could not be happier and really enjoys going to school. The staff and teachers are excellent and her homework she really enjoys. I couldn't praise the school enough. A happy parent
My child is very fortunate to have excellent teaching staff who ensure the curriculum is both engaging and planned appropriately to provide challenges and differentiate according to the needs of the children. Thank you.
We are delighted with the school. The only improvement we can suggest is to the process by which children are de-selected from sports teams. It could be done more sensitively.
I think Ickford is a brilliant school!
Both making good progress in all aspects of learning. Very happy that together the teachers and I are helping one of my daughters reading skills progress well. Thank you for all you do for them.
Sometimes the children get sent home with messages... it would be good to have a note to back it up.
Very pleased. All the staff seem excellent and Miss Vukomanovic is absolutely fantastic. Thank you
